

Working Lunch:

“Zwischen Glaube, Handel und Internationalismus.
Die Basler Mission als Globaler Akteur, 1910-1925”

Lecture by Matthäus Feigk
(Institute for European Global Studies,
University of Basel)

Tuesday, 17.02.2015, 12.15 h

Institute for European Global Studies
Gellertstrasse 27
4020 Basel

Matthäus Feigk is historian and current SNF fellowship holder working on his phd thesis at the Institute for European Global Studies. His research interests are the history of colonialism and imperialism, international organizations and transnational networks as well as the examination of interfaces between the history of missions and the history of religious movements with global history. In his presentation he will comment on the Basel Mission as global agent during the period 1910-1925.

We are looking forward to welcoming you!

A snack will be offered.

www.europa.unibas.ch