

Citizen/Stateless Person/Cosmopolitan: Refugee Selfhood in

Global Intellectual and Legal History

9th September, 2022

Old Class Library, 71 South Street, St Andrews

9–9.30 AM: Morning Coffee

Welcome Address: Caroline Humfress (St Andrews, ILCR)

Introductory Remarks: Milinda Banerjee (St Andrews), Kerstin von Lingen (Vienna)

Dina Gusejnova (LSE): 9.30–10.30 AM

Siding with Antigone: Tragedy, Genealogy, and Legal History as Sources of Alternative Allegiance among Exiles from Russia in Germany and France, 1920s–1940s

Philipp Strobl (Vienna): 10.30–11.30 AM

Refugee Agency and the Adjustment of Citizenship Law in Wartime Australia, 1941–1945

Kerstin von Lingen (Vienna): 11.30 AM –12.30 PM

Perspectives on the Connection between Expropriation and Lost Citizenship for Jewish Victims, and Difficulties for Redress after 1945

12:30–2 PM: Lunch Break

Milinda Banerjee (St Andrews): 2–3 PM

The Refugee Critique of Capitalism: Archives from Postcolonial West Bengal

Shaira Vadasaria (Edinburgh): 3–4PM

Return: Race, Redress and Refusal in Palestine

4–4.30 PM: Coffee Break

Rosalind Parr (St Andrews): 4.30–5.30 PM

Citizenship beyond the Postcolonial State: Indian Women's Organisations, Universal Rights, and the Refugee Crisis, 1947–1950

Anjali Bhardwaj Datta (Cambridge): 5.30–6.30 PM

Globalising the Urban Refugee: Gender and Agency in South Asia